Imagine you can modify your genes and get a better person instantly?

What would you do to have access to this technology?

Emma is poor and dreams of a better life; a life with gene modification and endless possibilities. The sound of cheap sneakers against wet concrete bounced sharply off the walls of the alleyway. "Halt! Freeze! Stop running dammit!" A heavier set man in uniform hollered into the alley between heavy breaths. 'it's too late sucka!' Emma thought as she rounded the next corner. Another left then right then left again, and Emma would be home free. As she turned this particular corner, the wall almost seemed to jump out and grab hold of both arms.

Get your copy now and find out if Emma gets the life she ever dreamed of

A Dystopian Novelette with over 10000 words. Explore a world where gene modifications are common but the vast majority does not have access to it. This Story is part of the Dystopian Health Collection - a Short Story Series with health as the common theme set in dystopian societies. Explore with Mad Robots how good intentions can go wrong.
