Origen - The Life and Thought of the First Great Theologian Henri Crouzel

Born in 185 AD in Alexandria Egypt, Origen became one of the most controversial figures in the history of Christianity. By the 5th century, he had gained a reputation as a great patristic thinker and theologian in the Eastern Church. With the resurgence of Platonism during the Renaissance, his work inspired some of the great humanists, and he has been the subject of increasing interest ever since.
