Dealing with the Dutch (Living and working in other cultures) J. Vossestein

The series Leven en werken in andere culturen (living and working in another culture) addresses issues related to development work, business, and living conditions in the tropics. A wide-ranging book covering many aspects of Dutch mentality, of special interest to those from other countries who work in the Netherlands or do business with the Dutch. The book has grown out of experiences in the training department of KIT, where for many years Dutch multinationals and government organizations have sent their foreign employees for courses on Dutch culture and society. (in Dutch and English)
