Hope Not Lost: How far would you go to realise your dreams? (The Chronicles of Jabuti) (Volume 2)

Heath Shedlake

VENEZUELAN COASTLINE 1698 “Try to enjoy the present; for that is all we have. Yesterday is a memory and tomorrow is but a dream...” But Jabuti hated the present, resented the past and dreaded tomorrow. Yes, he was complicated. He knew that only too painfully. The shaman’s words were wise indeed, but did anyone truly understand Jabuti? Did he himself? Well, everything would change from now on. All that was standing between him and his goal was the Atlantic Ocean - menacing and unforgiving. With his loyal friend, Wanadi in tow, they are introduced into an alien world where greed and malice are the sole currency.
