Purple Rain on Dogwood Lilies (Love Comes Lately) (Volume 1) Brian Voigt

Buckley Yates, a federal investigator, arrives for his new assignment in Markleeville, California. What awaits him is a storm in the making, as he discovers that Sarah Scullings, a bad omen from his past, is living in the tiny town of 300 residents. The lovely ballerina and business owner turns his life and investigation into turmoil while he learns that, in a town of 300 people, there is no way to avoid each other. Two souls begin to be drawn together, as Sarah runs from her past, while Buck is trying to run from her. Every step in opposite directions pulls them closer and closer together till the truth of a long misunderstanding, explodes into a love affair that they both have spent eighteen years running from. "Purple Rain on Dogwood Lilies" is a terrorist investigation for the Department of Homeland Security which occurs in Monitor Pass, California, and a healing of two souls who both love, hate and have avoided each other for years.
