Sharman on Basketball Shooting Bill Sharman

Rebounding, passing and defense may be important aspects of basketball, but the entire game still revolves around putting the ball through the basket. If he can't impress the coach with his shooting, the average player never gets a chance to display his other talents. This book is the classic "how-to" book on shooting the basketball. It is illustrated with drawings showing proper technique and photographs of NBA greats from years gone by. The drills, advice and techniques Sharman uses are timeless, however.
