Words of Grace Christian Leader's Handbook was written exclusively to assist pastors, ministers, priests, deacons and small group leaders in their duties serving our Lord Jesus Christ through His people. Words of Grace will aid you in performing: Weddings, funerals, baptisms, worship services, Communion, understanding your Call, baby dedications, conflict resolution, vision casting, connecting with your small groups and much more! Appropriate Scriptures and guiding principles have been placed in each section so you do not have to search through the handbook, your tablet or Bible. Your words and appearance as an officiant at Christian ceremonies and traditions are being recorded or broadcast live. This means that your time in front of a seemingly limited group will potentially exist for years online for all the world to see. This is why it is so important to "get it right the first time." Use Words of Grace handbook as your constant companion in making sure that your personal delivery of Christian faith, hope, and love is made at the highest level of excellence. So, whether you are a minister, deacon, trustee, teacher, small group facilitator, usher, choir member or work in the nursery, we are all God's servants, called to be His hands and feet in equipping the saints to do the work of His ministry. Let Words of Grace guide you as leaders to always: Love God! Love People! Share Christ! Make Disciples!
