Go back in time before the beloved Kenneth Grahame classic The Wind in the Willows, and discover how Toady and Badger first met. Young Archibald Toad the Third is used to having everything done his way, but he's in for a rude awakening when his new nanny brings her son, Badger, to Toad Hall! Not used to sharing and not having the attention all on him, Toady gets off to a rocky start with Badger. However, they soon learn that true friendship is worth a lot more than all the toys in the world. Join young Toady and Badger at their first meeting and learn about the importance of friendship and forgiveness, all while learning a new language!
