How would you like to make money doing what you love most? No matter where your interest lies--whether you collect stamps, love pets, or enjoy painting--you can turn your favorite avocation into a money-making enterprise. This book shows you how, step-by-step. Written by Martha Campbell Pullen, a college professor who turned her passion for sewing into a $2.5-million-a-year company, this book offers invaluable practical instructions for turning your part-time hobby into an exciting, thriving business. It teaches you the planning process, promotional tips, and people skills you need to succeed as an entrepreneur. Embellished with her down-home appeal and warm southern grace, Dr. Pullen's multi-million-dollar ideas and strategies will spark your creativity and enthusiasm and give you the encouragement to start turning your pastime into profit.

Michael Clements:

As a student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's internal or real their passion. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this You Can Make Money from Your Hobby: Building a Business Doing What You Love can make you experience more interested to read.
