Charity with a Bottom line...Business with a Heart, describes how two brothers, one with 35 years of humanitarian experience in 65 foreign countries and the other with a multi million dollar company combine to reduce poverty by creating Interweave Solutions.

Charity with a Bottom Line...describes with real experiences in developing countries how Interweave Solutions developed has helped thousands of people raise themselves out of poverty to micro entrepreneurship.

From Haiti to Nepal, the Congo to Ecuador, and many other countries around the world, Interweave emissaries have implemented these amazing principles that have created self reliance and personal satisfaction for thousands of individuals and families.

The Interweave model is a unique way to reduce poverty by teaching business training, personal goal setting and community service through self-sustaining self-reliance groups.

In this book you will learn the profound, but simple business planning process which utilizes the "6p's", a unique method of teaching and understanding business in low income populations.

The curriculum was used to increase income by 40% and increase the money paid to employees by 60% in a control/experimental study recently done in Ecuador by Citibank.
