A Generational Storm: The Tornadoes that Hit Alabama April 27, 2011 John A. Potts

There is always life after tragedy, it doesn't matter if one is killed in the process or left behind to tell about it. God take us through things in life to make us stronger and to test our faith. Many times, when we go through storms in life, we come out better on the other side. I'm not just talking about a tornado, hurricane or other whether related events, but spiritual storms, such as illness, money problems, family issues and job problems, etc. But the key is to go through the fire and come out on the other side as "pure gold". Some people asked, "Why this had to happen to me? " If you are asking why me, that means the storm left you here to help someone else along the way and to tell them how God protected you in the mist of your storm. Many people's lives were going great before the tornados struck that April, spring day and some were not. Just think about the story of Job in the Bible (Job chapter 1-42). Job had everything going for him, he was the richest man in the east, had 10 children and all the live stock you can name, So God let satin test Job, but didn't let him take his life. It is God, the Lord Jesus Christ, whom keeps us protected. Amen
