DAWN HAS ONE CHANCE TO SAVE HER CHILD BUT FATE DOES NOT FIGHT FAIR

All her life Dawn has been troubled by lost time. She awakens suddenly in strange places far away from her last conscious memory. The memories are a problem too. Reality doesn't quite fit with what she feels she absolutely knows.

Kylie is over her dead-end job. Her boss is on her back. Her ex-boyfriend still harasses her. And everyone underestimates her potential. Seriously, she just wants this day over. As she drives away from the worst work day ever she picks up her cell to send a text. It's a decision that will change her life when Dawn's world and hers collide.

The ensuing tragic accident takes Dawn's only child and she doesn't know how she'll survive. Ten days later, inexplicably, her lost time becomes a gift when she finds herself back again on the morning of the accident. Now Dawn can save her son. Now she can change fate.

Only one problem ... fate doesn't want to be changed. Can Dawn find a way to save one little boy before destiny decides it will no longer play?
