Faces of Change Thione Niang

This book reflects on the historical context of outstanding world leaders who have altered the course of history against all odds. Their leadership, dedication and contributions to humanity began when they were young, and continued throughout their lives and beyond. Through their work, we are assured that ordinary people can accomplish extraordinary results and manifest the future, as did several iconic Faces of Change. They lit the torch for the modern youth to follow suit. It's a roadmap of empowerment, enlightenment and engagement- to contribute to a better world. From an anthropological viewpoint the book streamlines political, participative and inquisitive awareness. Thione Niang, an author, political strategist, social entrepreneur and philanthropist, investigates the entire performance required to attain decisive change. Global youth must develop a sense of urgency for leadership and transformation in the horizons of economic equality through social justice. Pluralism, ingenuity and prosperity are the birthright of every global citizen. This definitive journal serves the purpose of enlightening global citizens towards becoming next faces of change. Sharing this collective wisdom will facilitate conclusive elevation of humanity.
