The Unreal, Silver-Plated Book / El Libro plateado y real Eduardo Molinari

This experimental essay introduces us to Eduardo Molinari's unique practice that entwines conceptualism, literature and performance and connects to methodologies of historiography, ethnography, militant research and psychogeography. It follows his research along the Camino Real, concatenating discussions of Argentina's pre-Conquest cultures, genocide and the consolidation of the Argentine state, guerrillas and counter-insurgency, the picketer movement that emerged in the 1990s, and the financial and political crisis that peaked in 2001. Eduardo Molinari is a multidisciplinary artist who lives and works in Buenos Aires. Walking as an aesthetic practice, research using artistic means and interdisciplinary methodologies are the basis of his practice. In 2001 he founded the Walking Archive, a visual archive-in-progress that delves into existing and imaginary relations between art, history and politics. - - - El Libro Plateado y Real nos acerca a la práctica multi-disciplinaria de Eduardo Molinari, que entrelaza conceptualismo, literatura, y performance, y que también conecta metodologías de historiografía, etnografía, investigación militante y psicogeografía. Este ensayo recorre la investigación de Molinari a través del Camino Real, concatenando discusiones sobre las culturas argentinas pre-hispánicas, el genocidio y la consolidación del estado argentino, guerrillas y contra-insurgencia, el movimiento piquetero que emergió en los 1990s, y la crisis financiera y política que culminó en 2001. Eduardo Molinari es un artista multidisciplinario que vive y trabaja en Buenos Aires. El caminar como práctica estética, la investigación con métodos artísticos y el accionar colectivo e interdisciplinario están en el centro de su labor. En 2001 crea el Archivo Caminante /AC, archivo visual en progreso que indaga las relaciones existentes e imaginables entre arte, historia y política.
