The mansion in the woods holds chilling secrets that have sauntered down throughout the generations. Trent Matheson, a victim of a brutal past he had absolutely nothing to do with is afraid of what lies within him. Struggling to live an ordinary life, he finds that the control he once possessed is slowly slipping away. The money, the power, the newly-found love... cannot subdue what is inherently a part of him.

Real Illusions offers a remarkable edge where two storylines are intricately intertwined. It's as if the reader is getting two books in one. No one can guess the ending... no one.
