You Do It Like This... I Did It Like That: Reflections of "Grand" Years P. Taylor Copeland
Joy, elation and pride mixed with the experience of love and life - it's the best of the best- it's being a Grandparent. In a follow up to "I Liked You At Ten... I'll Like You Again" and with "mommy" years behind her, P. Taylor Copeland now writes for every parent and grandparent. While weaving easy, heartfelt verse, Copeland re-visits the bonds of parent and child and introduces us to the bond between grandparent and grandchild and between grandparent and parent, all the while celebrating life's challenges and delights through love, humor and hindsight. Colorful illustrations by Erin Ambrose beautifully complement each sincere verse as Copeland's words remind us that a child IS a precious gift, for every parent and every grandparent. Enjoy!
