100 Ukulele Chords you REALLY need

When was the last time you opened a songbook and stumbled upon an „F#maj9“ chord? And how often do you play songs in keys like D flat or G sharp? If the answer's „never“ or „I can't really remember“ - read on. In real life most songs are notated in „easy“ Ukulele keys like C or D and the vast majority of them can be played with just three or four chords. You don't need thousands of chords but you need good-sounding and easy-to-play voicings for the chords you play every day.

And that's exactly what you'll find here: 100 chords you'll be playing every day. This little book fits right into your Ukulele bag so you can take it wherever you go and the large diagrams are easily readable even from a distance.

For Ukulele in C tuning (G-C-E-G).
