Little Girl Lost Little Girl Found Year Two Helen Scieszka

In Little Girl Lost, Little Girl Found Year Two, Ann's journey of self-discovery and healing continues Travel with her in her daily world where life events, friends, family, writing and her faith support and guide her path. Author Helen A. Scieszka, Ph.D., affectionately known as "Dr. Helen," is a "cradle Catholic" raised in the Midwest but also lived on the west coast and has degrees in Clinical Psychology and a special masters level certification in Theology. Once retiring from her careers as an advertising executive, therapist, college professor, parish Pastoral Associate and diocesan Married and Family life director she was finally able to focus on her lifetime love of writing. Her education, career and life experiences, national and international travels, enjoyment of people with the belief that "everyone has a story", and her deep love of her Catholic Faith are all brought together in her stories.
