The Path of Hope: Volume Ii Monteiro Adelson

The Path of Hope is a play that actually portrays the social reality of the people, how to live in society where we belong. It is really not a book whose value can be achieved by mere literary analysis. Then sooner or later the same book will take its place in American literature and also in the world literature. The reality that the poor will always remain poor and the rich always rich. Finally, there is always a way of hope to go and that Almighty God is the light of hope to the people suffered and humiliated by the man's selfishness dominating man to his own detriment.
