New Life for Your Church: A Renewal Handbook for Pastors Doyle L. Young

"We must begin to think and teach about what it means to follow Jesus...What does being a Christian have to do with the way--***you treat your spouse? ***you love your children? ***you do your job? ***you view political factors? ***you conduct your business affairs? Attending Sunday morning worship services is not the same as walking in the Spirit, loving your neighbor as yourself, obeying God's commandments, or honoring Christ in all you do." That astute critique of the current state of American Christianity is only one of the many pointed, pertinent comments made by Doyle Young as he gives step-by-step guidance for renewing the commitment and enthusiasm of a local church. Young also identifies and discusses basics that shape church life and zeros in on the primary tasks of today's church. From start to finish this renewal handbook is unusually practical and well illustrated with examples of churches that "do it right." Young's plan is logical, biblical, and easily adaptable for local church use.
