When Marjorie Griffiths learns that her husband has had a clandestine meeting with a young woman in a local motel, she hires private inquiry agent, Dick Hampton, to keep him under surveillance. The next day, Hampton informs her that her husband is in a room at the motel with the woman again, so Marjorie hurries over there and, when she sees her husband leave and drive away, she decides to confront the woman. And then she vanishes, without a trace. When Marjorie's husband, Chuck, reports her missing, he becomes an immediate suspect in her disappearance. He hires attorney Oliver Davies to advise him, and Davies recommends Kane & Lucy to investigate Marjorie's mysterious disappearance. But when traces of Marjorie's blood are found in their home and in her abandoned car, Chuck is arrested; and this is only the beginning of his nightmare, as demons from his past return to threaten and even destroy him.
