Arbitration Interactive: A Case Study for Students and Practitioners (Schriftenreihe der August Maria Berges Stiftung für Arbitrales Recht) (Vol 12) Klaus Peter Berger LL.M.

«Arbitration Interactive» combines the traditional casebook with modern DVD technology. In the book, the reader is guided through the business relationship between a Dutch and a Swiss company, from the negotiations of the export contract over the commencement of an international arbitration, the appointment and challenge of arbitrators, the jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal, the conduct of the hearings, including the taking of evidence (hearing of witnesses, documentary discovery) up to the setting aside and enforcement of the final award. The enclosed DVD contains videos of the hearings described in the book conducted by renowned international arbitration practitioners as well as various working aids and other relevant materials.
