Show students how anthropology can help them understand today's world

"Cultural Anthropology in a Globalizing World" presents a brief, balanced introduction to the world's cultures, focusing on how they interact and change. Author Barbara Miller encourages students to think critically about other cultures as well as their own, and offers frequent opportunities to engage deeply with key concepts. Featuring the latest research and statistics throughout, the Fourth Edition has been updated with contemporary examples of anthropology in action, addressing recent newsworthy events such as the Ebola epidemic.

Enhance learning with MyAnthroLab

MyAnthroLab for the Introduction to Cultural Anthropology course extends learning online to engage students and improve results. Media resources with assignments bring concepts to life, and offer students opportunities to practice applying what they've learned. Please note: this version of MyAnthroLab does not include an eText.

"Cultural Anthropology in a Globalizing World," Fourth Edition is also available via REVEL, an interactive learning environment that enables students to read, practice, and study in one continuous experience.
