Unfortunately, she's returned just in time to witness the rise of a new regime, and vampire politics don't interest Morgan so much as they make her want to set herself on fire.

When an old friend calls in a not-so-old favor, Morgan is reticent to help but eager to distract herself from missing her lover.

With vampires on her tail and a boyfriend who catches her in a rather suggestive situation, will Morgan be able to keep herself - and her relationship - alive long enough to survive the new king's machinations?
