Shifts in Compensation between Private and Public Systems (Tort and Insurance Law)

Shifts in Compensation between Private and Public Systems (Tort and Insurance Law)

The final volume in this series addresses, on the one hand, the issues relating to 'shifts' in compensation systems at a more general level, and on the other hand, addresses shifts in particular domains. The book offers an overarching analysis of tort liability and no-fault compensation as related to other shifts in compensation systems. It brings together lawyers and economists thus providing a multidisciplinary approach to tort law and alternative instruments.
