A Man Favored in his Eyes Cynthia D. Ragland

Esdell Brown's wife was a soldier and a casualty of the Iraqi war. Her death left him in a position that only a small percentage of men find themselves in being a single dad. His young adult twins and his grandson lived with him bringing with them their own challenges. Esdell tries hard to live a godly life before them and to always be an encourager for his family and friends but he was fighting his own personal and very private war.
